

JAN BERGER
SENIOR ART DIRECTOR

Jan Berger has extensive knowledge of papers and printing, direct mail (including postal regs) and other processes that complement her design talents and keen ability to embrace, learn and maximize new technologies such as changing computer dynamics, digital photography, using the internet, and new or upgraded software.

Working directly with clients to create anything that can be printed and used on the web. Helping clients determine what will be most effective for reaching their audience. Produced contest entry presentations for clients. Produced art for use on television.