

TAMARIND

design + marketing
uncommon & creative solutions

LINDA L. GALLEGOS PRESIDENT

Linda has been in the graphic industry for nearly 22 years. Starting her career at Tamarind Design in 1988 with just a student portfolio, then coming back as owner 17 years later. She utilized her background in design into an award winning agency working for b2b, non-profits and government clients. Her creative vision and strategic planning strengths help Tamarind Design + Marketing address client needs from both business and design perspectives. Linda is regarded for her attention to detail and her passion for design and branding. She won the 2009 best in advertising award for ads created for Aurora Water given by the Manufactures/Associates Council. God gets the glory for any success.

She is a member of the Colorado Healthcare Communicators and American Marketing Association. Former Member-Advisory Board for Arapahoe Community College in the Graphic Design and Illustration Program.